Dear Judge Duggan:

We write on behalf of Plaintiff Beacon Navigation GmbH (“Beacon”), in the above referenced matters. This letter is provided as a follow up to the July 10, 2013 status conference, at which Beacon was requested to provide three pieces of information: (1) the status of the two cases against Saab entities, and specifically whether those cases should be dismissed; (2) the status of Beacon’s Motions to Lift Discretionary Stays in the Audi 2 and Volkswagen 2 cases; and (3) the status of reexaminations for Beacon’s eight patents.

First, regarding the two cases against Saab entities (2:13-cv-11506 and 2:13-cv-11505), Beacon intends to move for dismissal of these two cases. Both Saab entities filed for bankruptcy and at this time Beacon does not intend to pursue litigation against the two Saab entities.

Second, Your Honor asked about the status of Beacon’s Motions to Lift Discretionary Stays, filed in the 2:13-cv-11405 (Audi 2) and 2:13-cv-11512 (Volkswagen 2) cases. The docket entries for the corresponding motions are D.I. 36 in Audi 2 and D.I. 36 in Volkswagen 2. Although the actions are technically stayed, the parties have been acting as though the cases are not stayed, and Beacon’s motions to lift stays were not opposed. Nonetheless, these two motions have not been ruled on, and because these two cases are technically stayed, Beacon requests that the Court consider and rule on these two pending motions. If the Court would like us to renew these motions or provide any additional information in connection with these motions, we would be happy to do so.

Third, the status of reexamination proceedings is as follows: Beacon's eight patents have been subject to twelve separate requests or petitions for reexamination, filed in some instances by defendants in litigation and in other instances by suppliers of navigation systems to defendants. The status of these twelve reexamination requests/petitions is set forth in the table below:
